BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the D. C. Bangalore declines to countersign, without authority, the bill for ~~in~~ half-yearly interest due for the support of the chattram, which is in the C & N. Station, which is outside his jurisdiction & requests to be informed as to who should countersign the bills in future.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The objection of the D. C. Bangalore is that the chattram in the C & N Station is beyond his jurisdiction & that he cannot therefore countersign the bill for half-yearly interest due on the endowment.

the Chattram for whose benefit the said endowment has been made is situated in the Civil and Military Station Clause (b) of Art.340 of the Mysore Account Code Vol.I, prescribes the procedure to be followed for the payment of interest on endowments. Under it, the bills have to be presented to the Amildar of the Taluk where the charities are situated, who after examining them, has to forward them to this office for countersignature. As the chatram in question is situated within the limits of Civil & Military Station, I cannot see my way to countersign the bill. If there is any authority under which this may be done, I shall be glad to be enlightened on the subject.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore District.

Sir,

With reference to your letter no 1659/S & G 18.10.22, stating that the Dy: Comr., Bangalore Distt., declines to con ter sig the Bills for the half-year interest due on the endowment of Rs. 5000/- for of Rai Bahadur Keshav Narayana-sainya Mudaliar, on the ground that the chattrams

 Bangalore; and, soliciting orders in the matter, I am directed to state that there is no objection to the Dy: Commr. countersigning the bills & seeing that the objects the jewellery there, the D. C. Hassan goes to Subramanya to ^{in connection with} conduct the Barahagar Sautarpane and the Mug: Commr. to Tirupathi to inspect the charities there.

 The mere fact that the chattram in question is situated in the for the Dy: Commr. declining
